

Virtual Facilitation Program

CRASH COURSE

Are you an experienced consultant, tutor or trainer and are you finding that, given the current global context, your bookings are being cancelled?

Are an increasing number of your clients asking you to deliver workshops and seminars virtually in order to avoid long travel?

Do you wonder how to deliver impactful and highly interactive workshops which go far beyond the basic webinar with heavy input?

If so, this is your chance to discover the real potential of Virtual Facilitation!

- Become a confident world-class facilitator in the virtual space;
- Protect your existing business during a difficult global situation AND
- Do something good for the environment – All at the same time!

On this program you will:

- ✓ Learn how to develop trust and intimacy fast in the virtual space
- ✓ Understand and work effectively with the psychodynamics of virtual groups
- ✓ Understand and apply the key principles of designing effective virtual interventions
- ✓ Understand the difference between virtual facilitation techniques and face-to-face facilitation techniques
- ✓ Assess your virtual presence and increase your own impact in the virtual space

Program Details

- Initial individual interview of 30 minutes
- 2-hour briefing session
- 3-day (3 x 4 hours) virtual workshop
- 2.5-hour follow-up session to consolidate and deepen what you have learnt from implementing the skills and competences acquired during the workshop
- Facilitated learning between participants on the dedicated Black Gazelle Platform, during the program and for 3 months after the follow-up session
- Additional one-to-one coaching where necessary (with no additional fees)

Participant number: 6

Fees: 4,000 EUR + VAT per participant, inclusive of all costs

ABOUT YOUR FACILITATOR

Dr Ghislaine Caultat has been researching in the field of virtual leadership since 2003. She specializes in helping teams to become high performing virtual teams and supporting leaders to lead effectively remotely. She has been delivering highly impactful, interactive workshops and learning interventions since 2006. During that time Ghislaine has worked with over 28 global organizations and has trained and coached over 2,000 leaders from all continents in the field of virtual collaboration and virtual leadership. She has also trained over 100 consultants to become facilitators of Virtual Action Learning as well as over 300 consultants to become either virtual coaches, virtual mentors or virtual facilitators.

